DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings were received on January 3, 2006. These drawings are acceptable.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-6 and 9-10 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fukuda (US Pat. No. 6,127,729). See Non-Final rejection previously mailed on October 5, 2005.
4. Claims 1-20 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Aiki et al. (JP 2002-303653). See Non-Final rejection previously mailed on October 5, 2005.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed January 3, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

With regards to Fukuda, Fukuda, contrary to applicant's arguments, still anticipates the claimed invention. For instance, Figure 2 shows four rows (two rows in the horizontal direction H_1 and H_2 ; and two rows in the vertical direction V_1 and V_2); wherein two adjacent test pads (7) are arranged at a substantial uniform intervals, each interval including two chip pads (8).

With regards to Aiki et al., it is considered that Aiki et al. also teaches the claimed invention. For instance, Figure 1 shows chip pads (squares having no "X" marks such as 311-313) and the test pads (squares having "X" marks such as 211-213) arranged at substantially uniform intervals.

Therefore, it is considered that the claim rejections are still proper.

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
